Dear Sir,

DIVIDEND OUTLOOK

In response to a question at today's Annual General Meeting regarding the outlook for dividends paid by the Company, the Chairman noted the decline in the Company's dividend income particularly from the Resources sector. He said however that the Board expected to maintain the dividend at 14¢ per share for the financial year to 30 June 2017, notwithstanding that this may represent a payout ratio of dividends paid to after tax profit (excluding special dividends received) of around 104%. The Company would, if necessary, utilise profits retained in prior years so as to maintain the dividend.

Yours sincerely,

A J Hancock
Company Secretary
